DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

RESOLUTION

Resolved, That the United States be, and they are hereby, declared free, sovereign, and independent States; that all political connections with Great Britain be, and they are hereby, totally dissolved; and that all former alliances, treaties, and compacts, in which she was united with that Kingdom, be, and they are hereby, null and void.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF

The said Congress, do hereby publish and declare the following

Declaration of Independence, that the United States be, and they are hereby, declared free, sovereign, and independent States; that all political connections with Great Britain be, and they are hereby, totally dissolved; and that all former alliances, treaties, and compacts, in which she was united with that Kingdom, be, and they are hereby, null and void.

Witness my hand and the seal of the said Congress, this fourth day of July, in the second year of the said Declaration of Independence.

Art. I.
